

Tech-News

Slashdot

- 'Planetary Parade' Will See Six Planets Line Up In the Morning Sky
- Scientists Find the Largest Known Genome Inside a Small Plant
- London's Evening Standard To End Daily Newspaper After Almost 200 Years
- Windows 11's New Recall Feature Has Been Cracked To Run On Unsupported Hardware
- Battery-Powered California Faces Lower Blackout Risk This Summer
- Wordle In Legal Row With Geography Spinoff, Wordle
- FCC Ends Affordable Internet Program Due To Lack of Funds
- All Santander Staff and 30 Million Customers In Spain, Chile and Uruguay Hacked

Reddit

- Japanese billionaire Maezawa cancels a moon flyby mission that was planned using the SpaceX starship
- Ticketmaster confirms massive breach after stolen data for sale online
- Ticketmaster, Live Nation served class action over alleged failure “to implement and follow even the most basic security procedures” after data hack affecting up to 560 million customers
- Arstechnica: Google Chrome’s plan to limit ad blocking extensions kicks off next week
- Operation Endgame: Coordinated Worldwide Law Enforcement Action Against Network of Cybercriminals | Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Live Nation probing Ticketmaster hack amid user data leak concerns
- James Webb space telescope photographs most distant known galaxy | James Webb space telescope
- A $25,000 electric Jeep? Challenging but possible, CEO says

Wired

- Google's AI Overviews Will Always Be Broken. That's How AI Works
- It's the AI Election Year
- Google Admits Its AI Overviews Search Feature Screwed Up
- Foreign Influence Campaigns Don't Know How to Use AI Yet Either
- Chatbots Are Entering Their Stone Age
- 2024 Is the Year of the Generative AI Election
- The WIRED AI Elections Project
- Chromebooks Will Get Gemini and New Google AI Features

From:
<https://wiki.rafisa.net/> -

Permanent link:
<https://wiki.rafisa.net/doku.php?id=de:start&rev=1702128431>

Last update: 2023/12/09 14:27

